SUMMARY OF CRITICAL DUTIES: The primary function of this managerial position is to provide overall management direction for the examination program in the Philadelphia District Office. The incumbent will be responsible for one or more of the following: Compliance and examination activities for investment advisers, investment companies and related transfer agents within the Region or District, and/or compliance and examination activities for broker-dealers and transfer agents located within the Region or District. The incumbent is responsible for the overall leadership and management of examinations, meeting appropriate program and office goals, and ensuring the high quality of examinations and appropriate dispositions, and hiring, training and deploying staff. Incumbent also provides appropriate examination staff support and assistance for investigative and enforcement activities that may result from such examination functions. The incumbent insures that the compliance and examination activities of the District office is carried out consistent with overall Commission guidelines and priorities. The incumbent's responsibilities further require frequent communication with registrants, state and other federal authorities, the public and self-regulatory organizations. As the chief examination representative in the district, the incumbent participates in educating the securities industry and the public generally as to the nature and effect of the work of the Commission and the protection afforded to public investors by the federal securities laws. Incumbent will also be responsible for proposing changes in policy and operational guidance, in an effort to keep up with the latest developments and changes in the securities industry.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: You must meet the minimum qualification requirements below to be considered for this position. These requirements are in accordance with the U.S. Office of Personnel Management Qualification Standards Handbook.

1. You must have a JD and be a member of the bar. (Please indicate your JD and bar membership on your application.) AND
2. You must have at least 52 weeks of specialized experience at the GS-15 or equivalent grade level (i.e. SK-16/17 at the SEC) OR equivalent level in the private sector. All candidates must possess significant supervisory/managerial experience that clearly demonstrates the knowledge, skills, and abilities required to perform the duties of this Senior Officer position. The specialized experience must demonstrate knowledge of the Acts administered by the Commission and expert knowledge in the review and analysis of financial information. In addition, you must have in-depth knowledge and understanding of Federal securities laws, the operations and functions of broker-dealers, investment advisers, and/or investment companies; and economic, accounting, auditing and financial analysis principles as they relate to investment companies, investment advisers and/or broker-dealers.

Candidates who are currently SES at other Federal agencies may apply for reassignment.

Senior Officer “SO” Core Qualifications

If you meet the requirements described above, a panel of three executives will review and rate your application on the four “Senior Officer Core Qualifications” identified below.

Please address each of the four Senior Officer Core Qualifications below, in writing AND on separate sheets of paper, clearly describing and giving examples that describe the extent of your experience. If your application does not show experience in each category, you may be determined ineligible or receive a low rating.

I. MANDATORY TECHNICAL EXPERIENCE:

Mandatory technical ranking factors are used to ascertain the extent of your knowledge, skills, and abilities as they relate to the specialized experience of the position. Provide examples that illustrate:

1. Comprehensive knowledge and understanding of one or more of the following: the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Investment Company Act of 1940, and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.
2. Substantial knowledge of and experience in the conduct of complex examinations.
3. Ability to analyze complex legal problems and devise innovative solutions which may have precedent-setting impact.
4. Knowledge of and experience with the operations of broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investment companies.
5. Experience that demonstrates an understanding of examination process and procedures, including an understanding of U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), and generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS).

II. MANDATORY MANAGEMENT EXPERIENCE:

Experience designing and implementing strategies which maximize employee potential and foster high ethical standards in meeting the organization’s vision, mission and goals. This includes the ability to provide leadership to inspire, motivate, and guide others toward goal accomplishment; promoting quality through effective use of the organization’s performance management system; and, fostering commitment, team spirit, pride and trust to help the organization meet its organizational and strategic goals.

III. LEADING CHANGE/ACHIEVING RESULTS:

Experience developing and implementing an organizational vision, which integrates key national and program goals, priorities, values, and other factors of that organization. Applicant must give an example of a major program change or project they led, which identifies how they exercised sound leadership and motivated managers and employees to incorporate vision, strategic planning, and elements of quality management into achieving results and change for the organization.

Examples given MUST stress accountability and continuous improvement. This includes dealing effectively with pressure, being open to change and new information, identifying and integrating key issues affecting the organization (including political, economic, social, technological, and administrative factors), setting program standards to promote customer service and/or the quality of the program and holding self and others accountable for achieving these standards.

Example must illustrate how applicants went from point “A” (problem to solve) to point “B” (end result/change for the organization).

IV. BUILDING COALITIONS/COMMUNICATION:

The ability to explain, advocate, and express facts and ideas (both orally and in writing) in a convincing manner, and negotiate with individuals and groups both internally and externally. Incumbents must be experienced in representing and speaking for the organizational unit and its work (through speeches, presentations, negotiations, etc) to those within and outside the office. This factor involves the ability to develop an expansive professional network with other organizations and to identify the internal and external issues that impact the work of the organization.

HOW TO APPLY

Candidates MUST submit:

1. A résumé; the Optional Application for Federal Employment; or any other written format of your choice which clearly identifies; 1) The announcement number, title, series, and grade of the job you applied for and 2) Information required in the OPM pamphlet "Applying for a Federal job". If you are a Federal employee, please be sure to provide your current position title, series, grade and step and date of your last within grade increase or promotion.
2. Separate sheet(s) which clearly address each of the Senior Officer Core Qualifications.
3. If you are a current Federal employee, a copy of your most recent performance appraisal.
4. If you are a current Federal employee a copy of SF-50, Notification of Personnel Action, to verify Federal competitive civil service status or reinstatement eligibility. (DO NOT submit copies of SF-50's for awards unless they show your current series and grade.)
5. If you are claiming veteran's preference, proof of active military service and honorable discharge (DD-214).
6. Background Survey Questionnaire (optional).
7. Copy of a DD-214 or other appropriate documentation if claiming Veteran's Preference.

If you do not address the Senior Office Core Qualifications to clearly describe the extent of your experience, you may be determined ineligible or receive a low rating. Veterans and disabled candidates are strongly urged to apply for consideration. If you do not provide all the information requested, you may lose consideration for this position
